Capital Area Health Network Celebrates National Health Center Week 2011 & Their Importance To Our Community

CAHN joins Virginia's one hundred plus community health centers along with the rest of America's more than 1,200 community health centers as they kick off National Health Center Week 2011 (August 7-13).

The theme of the week, "Celebrating America's Health Centers: Serving Locally, Leading Nationally," highlights the amazing 47 year record of Health Centers in providing affordable, high quality, cost-effective healthcare to all people, regardless of their ability to pay. National Health Center Week also provides an opportunity to focus on the progress we have made towards fulfilling the goal of our "Access for all Americans" plan to provide a healthcare home to 30 million patients by 2015.

Events marking this week include health fairs, visits by local, state and national leaders and media coverage. Capital Area Health Network will be celebrating this week by having activities:
